

DEPRESSION SYMPTOMS SURGE POST-COVID19

Rates of depression symptoms across all groups of people climbed in early 2021 (January to March) when compared to the period before the pandemic (July 2019 to March 2020)

